

A photograph of four people (three men and one woman) sitting around a wooden table, smiling and laughing. The table is set with various items: a bowl of orange peels, a bowl of dark cookies, a bowl of green grapes, a blue and white patterned mug, a light blue mug, and a green mug. A large, bold red question mark is superimposed on the right side of the image. The background shows a window with a view of a building and a framed picture of a dog on the wall.
